

Deputy Minister Paygar leads Study Tour to South Africa

Study Tour Delegation to South Africa headed by Deputy Minister Andrew G. Paygar (second from left, in yellow tie)

February 17, 2016 – Hon. Andrew G. Paygar, Deputy Minister for SBA, recently headed a study tour undertaken by USAID-IBEX to South Africa. The purpose was to share ideas and learn from the experiences of South Africa in the area of small business development. The delegation met with officials of the South African Department of Small Business Development and the Small Enterprise Development Agency (SEDA), and toured several business incubation centers in South Africa.

Study Tour Delegation on a guided tour of a Technology Incubation Center.